The issue of homosexuality has been a major topic world wide, especially for Governments, religious groups, and families. Many people discriminate, bully, abuse and even publicly hate homosexuals without adequate knowledge of the history of homosexuality. This book explains the issue of homosexuality in a historical analysis and even explains the various issues and topics as it regards homosexuality, issues like homosexual orientation and behaviour, homosexuality and psychology, causes of homosexuality, law and politics in relation to homosexuality and religion/discrimination against homosexuals. Michael does a remarkable job in his analysis on the issue as the conclusion of the book leaves one on a second thought as regards best approach to be taken towards the issue of homosexuality.
