The Who's Next Club : A Cosmetic Surgery Disaster Donald W. Ayer

Synopsis:

“On September 25, 2003, our daughter, Julie Ayer Rubenzer, walked into the Cosmetic Surgery Center in Sarasota, Florida. She did not walk out. This diary records the outrageous events that occurred from that first phone call to 2011—the ruling on Julie’s death certificate,” says author Donald W. Ayer.

The Who’s Next Club: A Cosmetic Surgery Disaster records the painful aftermath of a surgery gone wrong. This insightful true story was written in the hope of making a difference by reducing the cosmetic surgery death rate and exposing the disparity in justice when the people seeking justice are not rich or famous.

After three months of suffering, Ayer’s daughter was laid to rest on December 29, 2003. On the advice of their attorney, Ayer and his wife began this journal after their daughter entered the hospital; but they put it to rest for two months until February 2004, “when we learned what actually happened in that surgery room.”

In 2005, Florida conducted a licensing hearing in Sarasota. “We attended, heard the sworn testimony, and at that point had a legal record of that surgery.” But the Ayers did not receive justice or closure.

About the Author:

Donald W. Ayer lives with his wife, Maureen, in Waukesha, Wisconsin. He has a degree in English from the University of Wisconsin, Platteville, sold life insurance and then became a real estate agent. At age 74, he is now writing his second book, which he is also dedicating to his daughter, Julie.
