"I remember," he said softly. "I remember everything. You. Me. Us." Jenna's first two years of community college are almost over and it's time to decide where to finish her degree. Should she attend Yale to be with Robert, or off to Rutgers, where she really wants to go? As Sophie and Jhett's engagement is announced, she begins to question if she'll live happily ever after too. Right on cue with her doubts, a familiar boy pops up in her dreams again. But Evan's entrance is as abrupt as his exit, and Jenna's left worrying about his safety. Concern and curiosity get the best of her and checking up on him puts her within arm's reach of a man who still adores her, and one unexpected act of indiscretion will turn her world upside down and inside out. New Adult Paranormal Romance (think old-school paranormal. Twilight Zone-ish, not sparkly supernatural creatures.) Recommended for Ages 17+ for Language and Sexual Situations.
