Swearing off high maintenance chicks, Dallas Devils tight end, Brett Gold plays to score at whatever the cost, both on and off the field. Easier to maintain a reputation as a heartless bad boy rather than deal with his personal life shot to hell.

Only a fool would tangle with the little sister of the McLemore brothers. So far all men with a lick of sense have left Cory McLemore alone. But now she's back from college and ready to party. This cowgirl crafts the perfect getaway to Dallas for a girls' night out, never suspecting the inked stud she bumped into at the airport is about to become the missing link in her quest for a wild adventure.

Cory quickly learns Brett is harder to walk away from a second time when she discovers the man beneath the bad boy persona is far different than she ever expected.

A weekend with Cory has Brett scrambling. This NFL baller meets up with her family and it'll take more than fast hands and fancy footwork to score points with the hardcore McLemore men. With seconds left on the clock, Brett isn't about to let his Texas wildcat get away, not when she feels so damn good in his arms, against his body, and in his bed.

The Evermore girls band together when the smokin' hot McLemore men are rounded up for Girls' Night Out, Book 4 in the Bad Boys series.
