Oregon Shakespeare Festival Actors: Telling the Story Mary Z. Maher, Alan Armstrong

"Treat yourself to the best seat in the house and prepare to be moved, amused, and astonished. This lovely book provides a wonderful window into the inner workings of The Oregon Shakespeare Festival as a handful of their most distinguished actors discusses their personal creative process, the unique challenges of a repertory which balances classical works and new American plays, and the strenuous demands of being a professional actor at this, the highest level." -Robert Schenkkan, Pulitzer Prize and Tony Award winner
