Sign of the Times

Sign of the Times

When contemporary poets respond deeply to their lives, we look into the mirror of our culture along with them. These poetic concerns may appear in any number of current forms-rhymed verse, blank verse, prose poem, language poetry - but each asks us to stop and think about our world and our place in the human story. The songs of poets can reflect the health of our situation, like the warbling of canaries in the coal mine. In this, the fourth anthology produced by the Benicia first Tuesday Poetry Group, (and the first book by Benicia Literary Arts) thirty-one very different people offer you their original poems, their findings, their reports, their Sign of the Times.
