The central theme of this book is that all the families of the earth have been blessed in the past, are currently being blessed, and will continue to be blessed through God's covenant people, the house of Israel in the future. These blessings will continue as the house of Israel, in particular, and all the people of the world in general, do His work and will strive to walk uprightly before Him and become perfect. The book covers events in the lives of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob from the birth of Abram in Ur to the death of Jacob in Egypt. Jacob was buried in Canaan alongside his father Isaac and his grandfather Abraham, in the cave of Machpelah 307 years later.
