Adversity is Not Optional: But Where There is Hope, There is Life! Gregory Charles Reynolds
Fifty Years ago, on May 6, 1965, a devastating tornado ripped through several Twin Cities suburbs in Minnesota. Members of the Halverson family were victims of this tragic event and dealing with this adversity was not optional for them. The story of their response to this disaster and the resilience displayed is captured in a series of lectures presented by Professor Robert Johnson of The Adversity Institute. The resurgence of a militant atheist organization publicly professing non-violence, but secretly plotting to initiate a Holy War among the various religions of the world adds to the unfolding drama in this story of hope and love overcoming hate and despair.
