Unmarketable Dross George Berger

A monster-slaying hero. An invisible ninja assassin. A hopelessly lovestruck pair of teenagers. A woman who may or may not be a zombie. A disreputable gentleman of means. Humor. Adventure. Romance. Intrigue. A... goat?

Unmarketable Dross collects six of George Berger's unique pieces of short fiction, previously published as e-books, together in print for the first time.

These comprise:

Hamaika - an urban fantasy about food and faith, set at a science-fiction convention

Well Met by Gaslight - an early-Victorian adventure story full of action and adventure and very long sentences

Never According to Plan - an early-Victorian comedy of errors

Stanley and his Sword - One quite average fellow must battle legendary creatures, get the girl, save the world, and thwart his underling's machinations, armed with nothing more than hormones and a sword

All the Wrong Reasons - a touching young-adult romantic comedy
and

Midnight's Tale - a slightly literary tale of life, love, and livestock
